Making The Headlines

Woodrow Wilson High School has always tried to be a vital part of Portsmouth. During the 1994-95 and 1995-96 school years, Wilson High School excelled at these goals. As a result, Wilson High School was honored for its many accomplishments. In August 1995, Wilson High School was recognized by Dr. Richard Trumble as the "Most Improved High School" for the 1994-95 school year. Our principal, Lindell Wallace, made the headlines by being featured on the cover of The Ledger Star's Currents in June 1995. Wilson High School, along with the other Portsmouth Public Schools, also received the Senate Productivity Award. This prestigous award, given to the Portsmouth Public School system was presented to Dr. Richard Trumble in a parade held in September 1995. Wilson High School was also recognized for their achievement on the TAPS test. In 1995, Wilson's juniors (the Mighty Class of 1996) set the standard for the city with a significant improvement on every part of the TAPS test. On almost every section of the standarized test, Wilson High scored the highest of all of the Portsmouth High Schools.

Woodrow Wilson High School's community activities are numerous. Some of the annual events Wilson High School participates in are the Red Cross Blood Drive, Thanksgiving Food Drive, and Operation Santa Claus. Each of these events help those who are less fortunate. Other activities that Wilson made the headlines in are the United Way, tutorial programs for elementary school children, and fund-raising campaigns that help raise money for non-profit organizations and charities. Although Wilson High is currently in the third building to bear its name, it still has a rich history and will ultimately have a bright future. Wilson High School works hard to maintain its excellence in athletics, academics, and community service. The Presidents will continue to be the pride of Portsmouth well into the 21st century! We will continue to "Make The Headlines"

Homecoming '95

It was a dark and dreary night ... After being postponed for a week due to threatening weather, Homecoming '95 opened at Churchland Stadium under cloudy skies.

The crowd came with high expectations and the Homecoming Court was looking good.

Wilson's football team, on a building year, faced their cross town rival, the Greyhounds of Norcom. Both teams were experiencing disappointing seasons. The Presidents had plans to impound the dogs but fate looked the other way. After a valiant effort, the final score was Norcom 16, Wilson 6. Again, Wilson came close but this just wasn't their night.

Halftime arrived with the usual fanfare as the Marching Presidents took the field.

The time everyone was waiting for had arrived. The Homecoming Court was introduced. Looking sharp was the order of the event with some students almost unrecognizable in their finery. The Freshman Class was represented by Antwan Merritt and Tiana Wright. Jermaine Newsome and Brooke Smith represented the Sophomore Class and Mr. and Ms. Junior were Laurice Purham and Tamika Robinson. Nicholas Clark and Shonelle Ricks were Mr. and Ms. Senior.

The Highlight of the pageant was the crowning of Sonya Elliott as Homecoming Queen and Robert Stitt as Homecoming King.

Ms. Odom and her hard working staff did an outstanding job setting up the festivities.

Special thanks to Ms. Odom and the SCA!

Hail the Prince and Princess.

Maybe we should dance.

The prom season opened with a bit of controversy. The problem was where to hold Prom '95. The year before it was held at Wilson High School and plans were being made to hold the prom at a local night club. Several parents objected to this new location but after many reassurances from the administration and prom committee, it was agreed to be held at the Showcase. The Junior Class put on a hugely successful prom, one that created lasting memories.

The theme of Prom '95 was "Unmasking the Hidden Magic." Prom King and Queen were Shawn Oliver and Shameka Hicks. Junior prom Prince and Princess were Robert Stitt and April Miller.

The after prom party was held at Pinboy's in Western Branch. Everyone partied from 12 a.m. to 6 a.m.

Thanks for a night to remember Mrs. Glenda Jarman, junior class sponsor, and junior class.

Love Ya Baby!!

SO HAPPY TOGETHER!!!

Are we having fun YET?

What a CUTE couple!

Mr. Sean S. Sharpe
1966-1995

Mr. Sharpe was born May 5, 1966 in Beaufort, South Carolina. He graduated from Beaufort High School, received a bachelor's degree in Middle Grades education, he continued his studies at Elizabeth City State University, where he majored in Music and Related Arts.

His career in education began as a substitute teacher, counselor, and recreational coordinator. At the time of his death, he had been working as the Student Assistance Counselor at Woodrow Wilson High School for the past four (4) years.

Mr. Sharpe's dream was for a better world for young people. He wrote that he wanted to "provide young people with positive self-esteem and to help them learn how to interact with their peers and the community in a humane way." His work attests to his fervent belief in youth and his desire to help them make positive choices. He worked with the Youth Risk Prevention Program, Rites of Passage Program, Male Membership Program, Cassatt Social Adventure Program, and the At Risk Program at Craddock Middle School and Woodrow Wilson High School. In 1992 the At Risk Program at the former Alfred M. Gray Junior High School, currently known as Craddock Middle, received national recognition for the outstanding work being done at Gray with Mr. Sharpe serving as the facilitator of the program.

"WHEN IT'S TIME TO GO/YOU DON'T HAVE TO GO"

You'll never know when you'll go,
Or how long it'll take you to get there.
No kind of sign is given to you
So you have no time to prepare.

All your deeds, you do's, your duties
While accomplishing here on earth.
God knows what it is you have to do,
For he has given you your task at birth.

Take heed of the little time you have:
Don't just take things for granted;
Maybe we'll meet another time and place:
It doesn't have to be on this planet.

So as you journey, look, and wonder
Waiting for your new life to begin;
Please don't forget the ones you left behind.
Our love and friendship endure until the end.

God gives us each the gift of life
To cherish from our birth.
He gives us friends and those we love
To share our days on earth.
He watches us with loving care
And takes us by the hand.
He blesses us with countless joys
And guides the lives we've planned.
Then when our work on earth is done
He calls us to His side
To live with Him in happiness
Where peace and love abide.

Senior Superlatives

One of the more favorite activities of a student's Senior Year is voting for Senior Superlatives. Each year the senior class meets and votes for the individual that they think will best represent the class in a particular area, such as Best Looking, Most Likely To Succeed, or Friendliest. Winning a Senior Superlative is truly a flattering experience since the winner is a representative of the entire class. Winners take pride in their achievement, and hold on to the memory forever.

Chamae Barringer placed 5th in the triple jump and Jenita Harris placed 3rd in the 55 meter hurdles. Jenita also placed 5th in the Regional meet in the 55 meter hurdles. Yearbook Staff Worked Hard This Year

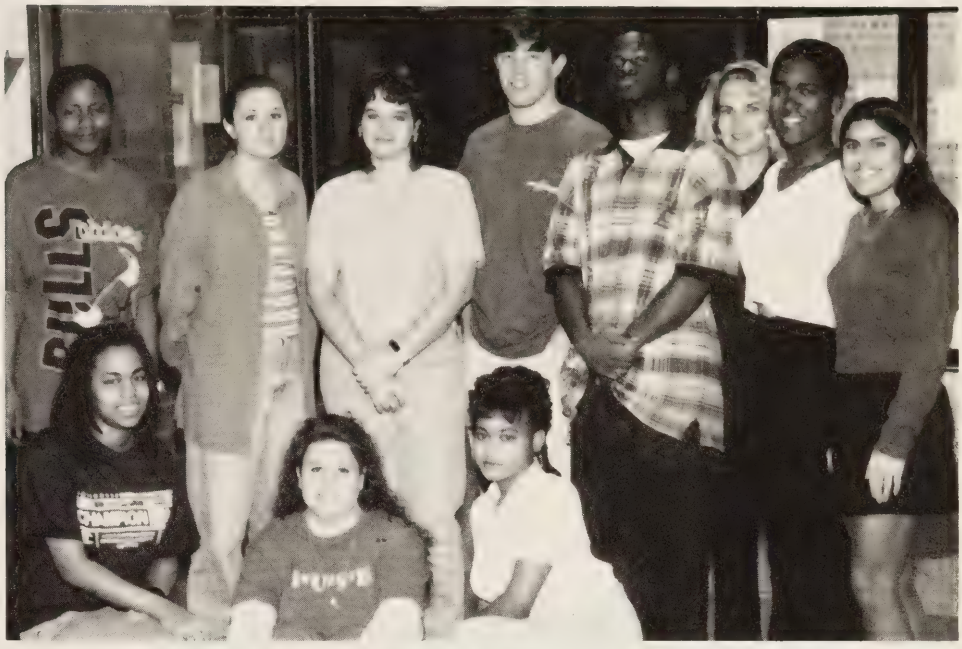
The 1995-96 yearbook staff worked hard to produce the '96 edition of the Wilson yearbook. The staff consisted of all seniors and one exchange student. Mrs. Trueblood once again, sponsored the staff.

Hard work, writing, editing and proofing are all necessary qualities in completing deadlines. The staff had to make these exclusive deadlines to make sure the yearbook was delivered promptly. Completing a 200+ page book took lots of hard work and patience. These are all qualities that the '96 staff possessed.



Anniina Leppanen, Brechelle Peebles, Realisha Arellano, Tammy Jernigan, Robert Stitt, Mrs. Trueblood, Paula Norman, Frances Genera, Tamara Bland, Brandi Ellis, Felicia Cansler.
